

Teaching options other than Fulbright

Opportunities that do not require a language background:

English Program in Korea

<https://www.epik.go.kr:8080/index.do>

The English Program in Korea (EPIK), affiliated to the Korean Ministry of Education, Science and Technology, was established in 1995 to improve the English speaking abilities of students and teachers in Korea, to develop cultural exchanges, and reform English teaching methodologies in Korea.

-If applying to start in the spring term, begin applying in August; for the fall term, begin applying in February

-Benefits: monthly salary, settlement allowance, free housing, entrance and exit allowance, severance pay, 50% of medical insurance premiums covered

English Opens Doors Program in Chile

<http://www.centrodevoluntarios.cl>

The EODP is a branch of the Ministry of Education designed to improve English language education in schools throughout Chile. Volunteers teach 35 hours a week at public schools under the supervision of Chilean 5th-12th grade teachers. Students live with a host family for the duration of the program. Full-time volunteers make a lasting impact on the lives of their students, motivating them to improve their English and participate in cross-cultural exchange. English Open Doors Volunteers teach alongside a Chilean co-teacher in either public or semi-private schools. Volunteers are placed throughout Chile, and work with students ranging from 5th to 12th grade. A background in Spanish is preferred, but not required.

-Deadline: Rolling

-Benefits: monthly allowance, insurance, travel, accommodations and meals with a host family

Interac

<http://www.interacnetwork.com/recruit/global.html>

Interac is Japan's leading private provider of Assistant Language Teachers (ALTs). Our highly motivated and qualified teachers serve thousands of schools and boards of education throughout every region of Japan, working with children from kindergarten to high school.

-Can apply at any time

-Benefits: monthly stipend, help arranging housing

-Airfare and housing are not covered

The Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET) program

<http://jetprogramme.org/ja/index-html/>

The Japan Exchange and Teaching Program is sponsored by the Japanese government. JET places native English speakers in classrooms across Japan. The workers live in Japan for up to a year and serve as a language assistant to Japanese students.

-Applications deadline is November

Teach for Thailand

<http://www.americanthaifoundation.org/teach-thailand-corps>

TTC places American graduates in underserved Thai schools as English language teachers. TTC believes that language skills are an essential foundation for a better life and a better world. Thai students equipped with English proficiency are positioned to succeed in school, work, and life, and to make an impact in their communities. Teach Thailand Corps has learned from and adapted elements of the Peace Corps philosophy of service and learning.

-Deadline: December (fall cycle) and April (spring cycle)

-TTC will provide housing, a monthly stipend, domestic work-related travel, and work permit and visa

-Airfare is not covered

Opportunities that require some language background:

BEDA English Teaching Assistants in Spain

<https://www.ecmadrid.org/en/programs/beda-program>

Bilingual English Development & Assessment (BEDA) is a program that “offers the opportunity to live in Spain as a Language & Culture Assistant, get valuable experience working in a classroom, learn about the rich and enticing culture of Spain and have an eye-opening, unforgettable experience while providing an enriching addition to your resume.” Fellows will work in Catholic schools around Spain and assist with English lessons.

-Applications open in January

-Monthly stipend is provided

-BEDA assistants help you find housing, set up your banking, etc.

North American Language and Culture Assistants in Spain

<http://www.mecd.gob.es/eeuu/convocatorias-programas/convocatorias-eeuu/auxiliares-conversacion-eeuu.html>

Positions are available in K-12 schools throughout Spain for the academic year to help to increase Spanish students' knowledge of English or French and North American culture. Eligible candidates are seniors and recent alumni who are Canadian or US native speakers of French or English, and who have intermediate-level Spanish; previous teaching experience or experience living abroad may be an advantage. The North American Language and Culture Assistants Program is an initiative of the Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport of Spain. The program is primarily devoted to providing grants for US and Canadian university students –majoring in any subject- and graduates with some proficiency in Spanish. Its main objective is to provide North American native English or French students with the opportunity to assist a teacher in the English or French programs in elementary, secondary or language schools in Spain (12 to 16 hours a week).

-Application opens in January and typically closes in April

-Monthly stipend is provided

-Airfare and housing are not covered. School can assist you with finding accommodations.

Teaching Assistant Program in France

<http://highereducation.frenchculture.org/teach-in-france>

The Teaching Assistant Program in France offers you the opportunity to work in France for seven months, teaching English to French students of all ages. Each year, over 1,100 American citizens and permanent residents teach in public schools across all regions of metropolitan France and in the overseas departments of French Guiana, Guadeloupe, Martinique and Réunion. Contracts are available for elementary or secondary schools. Proficiency in French is required. All teaching contracts last from October 1st through April 30th.

- Deadline: January (application opens October)
- Application fee $80
- Airfare is not covered
- Benefits: monthly stipend starting at the end of the first month

Programs that used to exist before COVID that might come back?

Teaching in Italy

ACLE (Associazione Culturale Linguistica Educational) is a non-profit association endorsed by the Italian Ministry of Education. You can apply to be a Content Language Integrated Learning Workshop teacher, where you travel around Italy with another teacher and give English workshops to elementary students. Or you can apply to be part of ACLE's Teach English Through Theatre and Play, where you teach English at summer camps. By living with a host family and working with local teachers, you have the opportunity to be immersed in Italian culture.

- Deadline: November
- ACLE will cover room and board, and provide a stipend.
- Airfare is not covered; participants must pay an orientation fee
- No Italian or previous teaching experience is required

Teach and Learn with Georgia

<http://www.tlg.gov.ge>

Volunteer teachers will stay in Georgia for at least one year and experience once in a lifetime opportunities, such as getting familiarized with amazing Georgian customs and traditions by living with local families, experiencing unique Georgian folklore and cuisine by socializing with local communities, and learning the Georgian language.

- Application deadline in July
- Benefits: monthly stipend, housing, insurance, round-trip airfare, local cell phone