Experiential Learning Rubric : Civic Engagement

Satisfactory	Unsatisfactory
Submitted response demonstrates a thorough and in-depth reflection on questions.	Submitted response either does not or only minimally addresses some questions.
- Response demonstrates in-depth reflection on the accomplishment of the learning outcomes and provides examples specific to the project. - Response demonstrates in-depth reflection and analysis of contributions to both the community and community partner - Response demonstrates in-depth reflection on the effectiveness of working with differing individuals, including both challenges faced and their response to challenges. - Response demonstrates in-depth reflection on individual development, academically, socially, and personally. - Response demonstrates in-depth reflection on the influence on the individual as a scholar and citizen. - Response is an appropriate resume entry using action words to highlight the student's achievements.	- Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection on the accomplishment of the learning outcomes and does not provide examples specific to the project. - Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection and analysis of contributions to both the community and community partner - Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection on the effectiveness of working with differing individuals, including both challenges faced and their response to challenges. - Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection on individual development, academically, socially, and personally. - Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection on the influence on the individual as a scholar and citizen. - Response is missing or does not indicate the student's experience or contribution.
The quality of writing does not limit the understanding of the reflection. Answers are complete sentences and make sense without reading the question.	The quality of writing limits the reader's ability to understand the reflection. Answers are not complete sentences or do not make sense without reading the question first.