

Experiential Learning Rubric : Leadership

Satisfactory	Unsatisfactory
Submitted response demonstrates a thorough and in-depth reflection on questions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Response demonstrates in-depth reflection on the accomplishment of the learning outcomes and provides examples specific to the project. ● Response demonstrates in-depth reflection on the effectiveness of working with differing individuals, including both challenges faced and their response to challenges. ● Response demonstrates in-depth reflection on the impact of working with peers and development of those skills. ● Response demonstrates in-depth reflection on both successes and failures, including discussion of how to build on failure and success. ● Response demonstrates in-depth reflection on individual development, academically, socially, and personally. ● Response is an appropriate resume entry using action words to highlight the student's achievements. The quality of writing does not limit understanding of the reflection. Answers are complete sentences and make sense without reading the question.	Submitted response either does not or only minimally addresses some questions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection on the accomplishment of the learning outcomes and provides examples specific to the project. ● Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection on the effectiveness of working with differing individuals, including both challenges faced and their response to challenges. ● Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection on the impact of working with peers and development of those skills. ● Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection on on both successes and failures, including discussion of how to build on failure and success. ● Response demonstrates minimal or no reflection on individual development, academically, socially, and personally. ● Response is missing or does not indicate the student's experience or contribution. The quality of writing limits the reader's ability to understand the reflection. Answers are not complete sentences or do not make sense without reading the question first.