

Application for Richard H. Thomas History Scholar Award for Off-Campus Research

Please complete this form and return it to History Department Chair Professor Phil Lucas or Professor Catherine Stewart before the deadline specified on the Award Guidelines.

1. Name:

2. Status (Sophomore, Junior, Senior):

3. Major(s) and Minor(s) (Current and/or Anticipated):

4. History Major or History Minor GPA:
Cumulative GPA:

5. Name of Course or Program to which you are applying and the dates you will be off-campus:

6. Status of Application to Program (Applied awaiting acceptance, accepted, etc.):

7. History courses completed:

8. History courses you are planning to take later this year or next year:

9. List your main areas of interest in history (geographical region, time period, topics):

10. Off-Campus Courses taken previously and/or currently enrolled in (include block and year):

(Cont. on next page)

11. Course cost or estimated cost for internship or independent off-campus research. For internships and independent research attach an itemized budget for travel costs, lodging, food, or research expenses such as library fees, Xeroxing, equipment):

12. List any other sources of funding for which you are currently applying (Cornell Fellows Program, Class of '55 Award, Levy Award)

13. Please provide a brief (1-2 paragraphs) statement in the space below describing the off-campus experience for which you are applying for a Richard Thomas History Scholar Award, and explaining how this off-campus experience will further your academic development and your professional goals.
 - If you are applying for funding for an off-campus course or program, be sure to include as much information as possible about this opportunity in terms of where you will be traveling, the beginning and end dates, and the course or program content. What will you be doing and how is it related to your academic and professional goals?

 - If you are applying for funding for independent research or an internship, this statement should be 1-2 pages in length, and should include as much information as possible about your proposed research plan: a description of your project and explanation of proposed research trip, as well as travel dates, and a tentative itemized budget for anticipated expenses (transportation, lodging, food, miscellaneous expenses)