Section One – Student Information

Name: _____

ID: _____

Date: _____

Academic Advisor: _____

Major(s): _____

Class (circle one):                      First Year                      Sophomore                      Junior                      Senior

Section Two – Program Information

The Ingenuity in Action Faculty Committee considers each petition based on the following criteria: 1) students going as seniors, juniors, or sophomores, in that order of preference; 2) the student’s level of financial need; 3) the merits of a student’s statement of purpose; 4) the merits of the faculty recommendation; 5) GPA; 6) no prior support for off-campus study through financial aid or Cornell funds; and 7) an interview, as necessary. Please note that the College reserves the right to limit the number of student participants and/or funding per student in any given year. The rules governing off-campus programs are stated in the Academic Catalogue under “Off-Campus Programs.”

INSTRUCTIONS: We ask that you select only ONE affiliated program or exchange program below. If you wish to use your Cornell need-based aid toward an affiliated program, you MUST turn this form and all required attachments in by February 25th, 2022. Please refer to Section Four for information on required attachments: personal statement and faculty recommendation.
